Royal Academy of Music.

FOUNDATION.

THIS Royal and National Institution was founded in the year 1822 through the patriotic exertions of John Fane (Lord Burghersh), eleventh Earl of Westmorland, and commenced its public work in 1823 under the direct patronage of His Majesty King George IV., whose interest in its welfare was manifested by an annual subscription of one hundred guineas.

OBJECTS.

The objects of the Academy, as set forth in its Charter, are "to promote the cultivation of the science of music, and to afford facilities for attaining perfection in it by assisting with general instruction all persons desirous of acquiring a knowledge thereof," and by a Supplementary Charter granted 29th November, 1910, the privileges of the Institution were extended so as "to do all and all manner of acts and things whatsoever and wheresoever which shall be necessary for or conducive to the effecting or carrying out the objects of the Royal Academy of Music or which the Board of Directors thereof shall in their discretion consider necessary."

HISTORY.

Shortly after the opening of the Academy, His Majesty King George IV. further evinced his interest in the School by granting it a Royal Charter on 23rd June, 1830. His successors, King William IV., Queen Victoria and King Edward VII., were also Patrons of the Academy, and continued the pecuniary contribution to its funds.

While Prince and Princess of Wales, His late Majesty King Edward VII. and Queen Alexandra conferred the highest distinction upon the Academy by graciously attending, in person, the distribution of prizes in the year 1897, and the present Sovereign, King George V., with his Consort, Queen Mary, have recently indicated their interest in the institution by heading the list of Royal Patrons.

On the lamented death of the President, H.R.H. the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, in 1900, the Academy was honoured by the gracious acceptance of the Presidentship by H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.

During the ninety-eight years of its existence, the Academy has laboured steadfastly to achieve the objects of its Founders. Its work in the cause of musical education has been carried on, with the help of many eminent musicians and lovers of music, by its Principals, Dr. William Crotch, 1823; Mr. Cipriani Potter, 1832; Mr. Charles Lucas, 1859; Sir William Sterndale Bennett, 1866; Sir George A. Macfarren, 1875; and Sir Alexander Campbell Mackenzie, 1888. That its work has been successful is attested by the fact that starting with only twenty students in 1823, the number now under training is considerably over 600, and that of the thousands who have received their musical training within its walls, a very large number have risen to positions of eminence and distinction and have extended the good work, not only throughout Great Britain, but also to the British Dominions and the Empire of India.

Throughout the period extending from March, 1823, to July, 1911, the work of the Academy was carried on at Tenterden Street, Hanover Square, beginning with one house and adding others as the number of pupils increased, until at last six houses were absorbed and no further extension could be made. The need for more commodious and more suitable premises having become urgent, the Directors secured a new site in the Marylebone Road, and the foundation stone of the new building was laid by the late Lord Strathcona on the 14th of July, 1910. The building being completed, the work of the Academy was transferred to it in time to begin the new session at Michaelmas, 1911. The building was formally opened by His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught on Saturday, the 22nd of June, 1912. The new Academy is centrally situated and easily reached; it is near the termini of three main lines (viz., Great Western, Great Central and London and North Western Railways), and is easily accessible by the various "Tubes" and omnibus services.

Though they could not forsake the old home of the Academy without feelings of regret, the Governing Bodies feel much gratification in being able to provide a building specially designed for the work of the School and affording the professors and students ample accommodation for carrying on their work under better conditions than were obtainable in the old building.

CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNMENT.

The Academy is incorporated by Royal Charters, granted 23rd June, 1830, and 29th November, 1910, and, as provided therein, is governed by a President, four Vice-Presidents, Board of Directors, Committee of Management, Chairman, and Treasurer, all of whom are elected from among the members of the body corporate. Acting under them are the House Committee, the Principal, and the executive officials.

Membership in the Corporation is unlimited, and all classes of Subscribing Members are eligible for election on the Directorate and the Committee of Management.

SECOND CLASS.

Contributors of 50 guineas in one payment, or 5 guineas annually, have the privilege of being present, and of introducing two persons, on the occasions above-mentioned.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND EXHIBITIONS.

The holder of any Scholarship or Exhibition is ineligible for future competitions for that particular Scholarship or Exhibition.

There are sixty-nine Scholarships and Exhibitions in active operation at present. They are obtainable by competition only, and, except where the contrary is stated, both Students and Non-students are eligible. As a rule, they are tenable for three years; but the conditions of competition and tenure vary in accordance with the wishes of the respective founders. Full particulars and entry forms are obtainable on application to the Secretary about ten weeks prior to the respective dates of the competitions. The holder of a Scholarship or Exhibition is, during its tenure, ineligible to compete for any other Scholarship or Exhibition. The holder of a Scholarship is subject to periodical examination, and if satisfactory proof of progress be not given, the Committee may declare the Scholarship vacant and hold a new election for the residue of the term thereof. The Scholarships and Exhibitions comprise :—

PAYING STUDENTS.

Ordinary Paying Students are admitted at the beginning of each Term and Half-Term. Before entering, they are examined by the Principal or Curator.

This Examination is in no sense competitive, and persons are accepted as Students provided they give evidence of careful preliminary training or of sufficient natural ability. The objects of the Examination are (1) to enable the Principal to judge as to the general fitness of a candidate for acceptance as a Student; (2) to ascertain the degree of proficiency already attained by the candidate; and (3), if accepted, to make the necessary arrangements for Professors and Classes.

The fee for this Examination is 1 Guinea, which amount should be forwarded, with the printed form of application for admission (enclosed herein), at least three days before the date of examination. If the applicant become a Student, this fee is considered as part payment of the entrance fee of 2 Guineas.

The appointment of Students to the various Professors is left absolutely to the discretion of the Principal.

Students are not admitted for a shorter period than three Terms, nor for less than the ordinary curriculum.

To obtain the highest awards of the Academy, a course of at least three years' study is requisite.

At least fourteen days' notice of the removal of a Student is required.

Failing the due receipt of such notice by the Secretary the fees for half a Term are payable.

There is no limit to the age of Paying Students, except in the Junior Department (see p. 20), particulars of which are given in a separate prospectus.

It is open to any person to assist Students by paying the whole or a portion of their fees, by subscribing to the Fund established for that purpose (see p. 69), or by founding Exhibitions, &c.

Persons residing at a distance from London may obtain information and advice respecting the Academy from any of the Honorary Local Representatives. (See List, pp. 60—63.)

Michaelmas Term will begin on MONDAY, 20th SEPTEMBER, 1920, and close on SATURDAY, 11th DECEMBER, 1920.

Lent Term will begin on MONDAY, 10th JANUARY, 1921, and close on SATURDAY, 2nd APRIL, 1921.

Midsummer Term will begin on MONDAY, 2nd MAY, 1921, and close on SATURDAY, 23rd JULY, 1921.

Entrance Examinations will be held:—

For the Lent Term, on FRIDAY, 7th JANUARY, 1921, at 2.

They should then attend on the day of examination, bringing with them music which will exemplify their attainments in the subjects proposed for Principal and Second Studies respectively. An accompanist is provided, but applicants may bring their own if they so desire.

LODGINGS FOR STUDENTS.

There is no accommodation in the Academy for resident Students. For the convenience of Parents, Guardians, and Students, a list of persons who are desirous of receiving Students as boarders, and who have given references as to their fitness and respectability, is kept. This list is open to inspection at all times, and a copy thereof will be sent to the parents or friends of intending Students on application to the Secretary.

LUNCHEONS, &c.

Luncheons, teas, and light refreshments can be obtained at moderate prices, the arrangements being under the supervision of the House Committee and the Secretary.

STUDENTS' PRACTICE.

Owing to want of space, general practice cannot be permitted at the Academy. Two practice organs have, however, been erected for the convenience of Students, and certain rooms containing pianofortes are placed at their disposal for private practice, when convenient.

ANNUAL EXAMINATION OF STUDENTS.

Annually, in the Midsummer Term, every Student who has attended throughout the Academic Year is required to undergo an examination in each subject of study pursued by him or her. These examinations are conducted by Boards of Examiners appointed by the Committee of Management.

To such Students as show sufficient progress awards are made as follows :

For Principal Studies, Harmony, and Sight Singing—

To Students of one or more years' standing, Commendation or Bronze Medals.

To Students of two or more years' standing, who have already taken bronze medals, Silver Medals.

To Students of three or more years' standing, who have already taken silver medals, Certificates of Merit.

For Languages, Dancing, Deportment and Fencing—Prize Books.

For Second and other Studies, "Honourable Mention." Those who have twice previously obtained "Honourable Mention" will be permitted to enter as for Principal Studies.

REPORTS.

A report on the progress of each Student is made annually by the Professors concerned, and is transmitted by the Principal to the parents or guardians of the Student. Special reports of a similar character are made when desirable.

SUB-PROFESSORSHIPS.

All Students are taught with a view to the possibility of their becoming teachers, and, as a mark of particular distinction, advanced Students are appointed Sub-Professors, and are required to give instruction in the Academy under the supervision of their own Professors. This appointment is for a period not exceeding three years, and is relinquished if the Student leave the Academy before the expiration of the period.

EXAMINATION ON LEAVING, DISTINCTIONS, &c.

On leaving the Institution, Students who have attended more than six Terms may be examined by the Principal. If the examination prove satisfactory, they receive a Certificate of their qualification as teacher, performer, or both. (See Regulation XV., p. 22.) Those who have been specially successful during their studentship may be recommended to receive the distinction of Associate of the Institution.

Students who distinguish themselves in the Musical Profession after quitting the Institution may, on the recommendation of the Committee of Management, be elected, by the Directors, Associates or Fellows of the Royal Academy of Music, with the privilege of the use after their names of the letters A.R.A.M. and F.R.A.M. respectively.

No Student, nor any Past Student not being an Associate or Fellow of the Academy, is under any circumstances entitled to use these distinguishing letters.

No Student is allowed to take part in any public performance, or publish any composition, or enter into any professional engagement, without the permission of the Principal. (See Regulations XI. and XIII., pp. 21, 22.)

CONCERTS, OPERATIC AND DRAMATIC PERFORMANCES.

Evidence of the progress made by the Students is given at the Fortnightly Concerts held during Term time in the Academy, and by Public Chamber and Orchestral Concerts given every Term in such Metropolitan Concert Hall as the Committee may select. Friends of Students and Subscribers to the Institution receive tickets for these Concerts.

From time to time since the year 1828 public performances of Opera have been given by the Students, both at the Academy and in Metropolitan Theatres. The list for the last fifteen years comprises selections from fifty-six operas, and the performance of twelve complete works.

THE ANGELINA GOETZ LIBRARY.

(Founded by Miss Alice and Messrs. Ludovic and Charles Foster, 1903, in Memory of their Mother.)

This library contains about 350 scores of modern works. By the Deed of Gift it is provided that: "all members of the Corporate Body and Students in the R.A.M., and any other person who has the special permission of one of the Donors, the Principal, Curator or Secretary of the Academy, shall have access during Term time, from 10 to 5 daily, except on Saturdays, when it is closed at 1 o'clock."

THE LENDING LIBRARY.

The Music Library, which was enriched some time ago by a large number of Orchestral Scores, the gift of Messrs. Novello & Co., and more recently by a large number of Full Scores, Choral Works, Solos, and general Musical Literature from the Library of the late Mr. C. Ainsley Barry, is open for the use of Students, who are responsible for works which they borrow, and liable for any loss or damage such may sustain whilst in their possession.

The Royal Academy of Music has recently received a welcome gift in the form of some 200 volumes of music, chiefly consisting of old church music and modern operas of the French school. This formed the bulk of the library of the late Arthur Prendergast, and it includes nearly the entire vocal and instrumental works of Charles Gounod, ballets by Delibes, Widor, etc.; operas by Rubinstein, Meyerbeer, Wagner, Mozart, Gluck, and many others. The church music comprises, besides the masses of Haydn, Mozart, and Cherubini, many volumes of anthems and services by the great English church composers.

The Library is further indebted for gifts of valuable music to Mrs. Ellissen, Mrs. W. Hugh Spottiswoode (from the Spottiswoode Beddoma Collection), Mr. Gilbert Betjemann, Mrs. Le Mare Shallis, Mr. Oscar Beringer, Mrs. Humfrey, Miss Inez Dicksée, Miss Jay, Sir Charles Santley, and others; and has also received bequests of books and music from Colonel Finlay, the late Miss Oliveria L. Prescott and Dr. Southgate.

BEQUESTS OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

The Academy has from time to time benefited by the generosity of friends who have bequeathed to it valuable instruments as objects of artistic interest, or for the use of talented students approved by the Committee of Management and under conditions framed by them. Amongst the most important of these are:—

- A Grand Pianoforte by Messrs. Steinway, and
- A Violin by Stradivarius, bequeathed by the late Mrs. Lewis Hill.
- A number of Violins and Violas by Stradivarius, Amati, and others, bequeathed by the late Mr. John Rutson.
- A Violin by Guadagnini, once the property of Ludwig Strauss, presented by Miss Ida Freund.

Two Violins, presented by Mr. Fredk. Geo. Fitch, J.P.

In memory of the late Mr. Thomas Threlfall, for many years Chairman of the Committee of Management, his widow has presented (in addition to a Scholarship and a handsome contribution to the Students' Aid Fund), a fine three-manual Organ, by Messrs. Norman & Beard, for the Concert Hall.

Mr. Arthur F. Hill (of the firm of Messrs. W. E. Hill & Sons, Bond Street, W.) has rendered valuable services to the Academy in connection with the care and examination of the stringed instruments, which services are cordially acknowledged by the Committee.

BENTLEY TRUST.

To be applied by the Committee of Management to benefit and advance the art of music in England.

in the morning and evening, and in the middle of the day the sun is shining brightly, and the air is warm and pleasant. The wind is blowing from the south, and the clouds are light and airy. The water is calm and clear, and the fish are jumping out of the water. The birds are singing, and the bees are buzzing. The flowers are in bloom, and the grass is green. The trees are full of leaves, and the leaves are turning yellow. The sky is blue, and the sun is shining. The air is warm, and the water is calm. The fish are jumping, and the birds are singing. The bees are buzzing, and the flowers are in bloom. The grass is green, and the trees are full of leaves. The leaves are turning yellow, and the sky is blue. The sun
